

EUROPEAN EVALUATION
SOCIETY

EES Webinar Series:

Emerging Data Landscapes in M&E

Geospatial, location and big data: Where have we been and where can we go?

Tuesday, 28 July 2020
15:00 CEST / 9:00 ET

15:00 Welcome and framing

- May Pettigrew, Board of Directors, European Evaluation Society

15:05 Evaluation and emerging data: what are we learning from early applications?

- Estelle Raimondo, Senior Evaluation Officer at the World Bank Independent Evaluation Group

15:15 How are geospatial, location and big data being used for M&E?

Case Study: Integrating geospatial methods into evaluations: opportunities and lessons

- Anupam Anand, Evaluation Officer at the Global Environmental Facility, Independent Evaluation Office
- Hur Hassnain, Senior Evaluation Advisor, European Commission DEVCO/ESS

Case Study: Observing from space when you cannot observe from the field

- Joachim Vandecasteelen, Young Professional at World Bank Independent Evaluation Group

15:45 What are the organizational barriers to adopting new data types for M&E?

- Alexandra Robinson, Co-Author, "Big Data to Data Science: Moving from What to How in the MERL Tech Space;" Market Strategy and Data Ethics Lead at Threshold.World.

16:00 Open Discussion

- Facilitated by Linda Raftree, Independent Consultant and MERL Tech Co-founder

16:25 Closing Remarks

- Valentine Gandhi, Chief of Party, MEL Platform USAID/Indonesia (Social Impact) & Founder of The Development CAFÉ

THE DEVELOPMENT
CAFE

IEG
INDEPENDENT
EVALUATION GROUP

WORLD BANK GROUP
World Bank • IFC • MIGA