

MEL Sector Lead

Pan-European opportunity to develop the MEL practice and capability across multiple donors and geographies

NIRAS are a pan-European International Development consultancy and are recruiting a senior MEL specialist to develop, grow and expand their Europe-wide MEL offering.

We are looking for candidates with excellent MEL credentials combined with the vision or experience to access new clients, win new programs, develop branding and marketing strategies and increase knowledge sharing.

This is a great opportunity for someone who wants to think big, create a new unit of business and raise the NIRAS MEL profile worldwide.
