

Call for Scholarship Applications for the Conference registration fees „Power of evaluation: Influencing decision making for a better and more equal world“ (27-30 September 2022)

It is our pleasure that we can offer two Calls for Scholarship Applications for the registration fee to the online IDEAS Conference 2022 and to the Evaluation for Transformation Award Ceremony on 27-30 September 2022! We especially encourage the young and emerging evaluators (YEE) and students from developing countries to apply!

Thanks to the support from the Independent Evaluation Office of the Global Environment Facility, the Call for Scholarship Applications was launched in mid-August 2022 and at this moment, the Conference Management Committee is assessing the received applications.

A new Call for Scholarship Application was open thanks to the support from the Independent Evaluation Unit of the Green Climate Fund and from the Independent Evaluation Office of the United Nations Development Programme. In case you need a support to participate in our event, you can apply in the Application form.

The selected applicants will receive a free access to all three days of the online IDEAS Conference on 27-29 September 2022 and to the online Evaluation for Transformational Change Award Ceremony on 30 September 2022.

Please send us your Scholarship Application as soon as possible, or directly register to the Conference!
